"OBSERVE SUNDAY"

On all letters passing through Canada's mails during October and November, the cancellation stamp carries the words "Observe Sunday." This is a compliment from the Post Office Department to the Lord's Day Alliance, which has been a most valuable factor in supporting the Lord's Day Act of the Dominion Parliament, and which is celebrating its fortieth anniversary this year by aiming to raise a fund of $40,000 for its work.

The fundamental reason for Sunday observance is Rest—rest in seven at least. There are a multitude of differing views as to Sabbath observance, but the purpose of the Canadian civil legislation is to prevent Sunday being used for mercantile uses, being used for the making of mercantile gain. That is a basis on which the vast majority of us can unite in the observance of Sunday. It is a most valuable factor in the national life, and gives Canada a brighter and happier Sunday than non-observant countries or communities enjoy.

TAXED TO DEATH

A certain man in Chicago received from a certain other man in Illinois one of those cruel epistles known in plain English, as a dun. Apparently he was broke, badly broke at that, for this is the reply he made:

"For the following reasons I am unable to send you the check you have asked for:

"I have been held up, held down, sand-bagged, walked on, flattened out and squeezed, first by the government for federal war tax and ex-

Headaches Were So Bad* They Kept Her Awake

Headaches seem to be habitual with some people; some are seldom, if ever, free from them, suffering continually from the dull throbbings, the intense pain sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and again over the whole head.

There is only one way to get relief from these persistent headaches, and that is by going direct to the seat of the trouble, for unless the cause is removed the headaches will still continue to exist, and the fact that keeps the stomach, liver and bowels topped up is proof enough to show that it will eliminate the cause of the headache.

Mrs. A. M. Arsenault, New Aberdeen, N.B., writes:—"For a period I had been troubled with headaches and they were so bad they kept me awake at night. I was advised by a friend, after having used many different kinds of medicine, to try Burdock Blood Bitters. After taking three bottles I was completely relieved, and can recommend it to be a perfect medicine."

cess profit tax, merchant's license, merchant's bond, auto tax, Liberty Loan bonds, thrift stamps, capital stock tax, and every society and organization that the mind of man can invent, to extract what I may or may not possess; from the society of St. John the Baptist, to G.A.R.F., the Women's Relief, the Navy League, the Red Cross, the Double Cross, the Children's Home, the Dorcas Society, the Y.M.C.A., the Y.W.C.A., the Boy Scouts, the Jewish Relief, and every hospital and church in town.

"The government has so governed my business that I do not know who owns it. I am inspected, suspected, examined, re-examined, informed, misinformed, required and commanded, so I do not know who I am, whose I am, or why I am. All I know is that I am supposed to have an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race; and because I will not sell all I have and go out and beg, borrow or steal money to give away, I am talked about, lied to, talked to, lied about, held up, robbed and nearly ruined. The only reason I am clinging to life is the insane desire to see what in hell is coming next."

FOOD FADS

The individual who desires to live a healthy life and to eat as he should finds it difficult to decide as to his proper food because of the number of fads which are shouted from the housetops and advertised in striking and convincing ways. It is not possible even to mention all the food fads in a brief space, let alone to attempt to discuss them. Merely a few of the outstanding fallacies of the claims will be mentioned in order to guide the reader in considering this important subject.

That one individual apparently prospers on an unusual diet is no reason for believing that such a diet is generally suitable, any more than it is reasonable to say that all men should be marathon runners because one man does well on that type of exercise. There is no evidence to show that vegetarians enjoy better health, or that they live longer than those who use meat. It has been pointed out that two of the most remarkable recent medical discoveries—liver extract as a treatment for pernicious anaemia and insulin for the treatment of diabetes—are two extracts of meat which are life-saving.

There is no scientific evidence which supports the idea that cancer has anything to do with the use of refined foods, such as white bread or the eating of meat. There is no foundation for what is called the dangerous food combination, which is based upon the idea that certain foods should not be eaten together, as one interferes with the digestion of the other. There is no need to eat one particular food in order to secure some constituent, such as iron or calcium. There is no objection to these foods, but it is a variety of foods, including milk, green leafy vegetables and fruits, which insure a sufficient quantity of minerals and vitamins for the adult.

The foundation of health is moderation. Do not eat too much. Eat slowly. Eat regularly. Use milk and milk products, green leafy vegetables and fruits regularly.

Questions, concerning health, addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, 184 College Street, Toronto, will be answered personally by letter.

WORTH UNADORNED

(By Walt Mason)

We often see the man of worth turned down because he has no style; perhaps he has too ample girth, perhaps a weird, ungainly smile. It may be that his feet don't track, his whiskers may be pink or blue, he may be swayed and bent of back from bearing burdens from and to. Thus handicapped he goes his way, an honest man of lofty aims, who never will from virtue stray, pursuing cheap and sinful games. He fails would wear a lovely maid, but she in sorrow turns him down, for she is troubled and afraid of all his trickles, large and brown. How can she love a man who walks like some performing polar bear, who always stutters when he talks, and who has dull and bristled hair? And so she weeds a gaudy skate who has a hundred priceless charms, and finds out, when it is too late, the value among the false alarms. She often has to scrub or sew, to make a living for the pair, and as the seasons come and go, she finds that life is full of care. She looks out from her shanty door, and sees the man of worth go by; of coin he has a goodly store, and he can purchase costly pie. If she had only answered "Yes," when he desired her for his bride! The thought occasions her distress, and starts a green pain in her side. The men of worth go up and down upon their errands safe and sane; there are a hundred in the town, and they are homely men and plain. The lovely maidens murmur "No," when they come wooing to the man of worth, and then the lovely maidens go and marry featherweights. The man of worth should wear a sign announcing that he's good as gold, so that the girls may get a line on all the merits he may hold.

FIRST STEP IN HYDRO POWER

The first step in the utilization of the immense power to be generated by the Calgary Power Company dam at the junction of the Ghost and Bow Rivers, took place between October 15 and 20, when an 18,000-horsepower generator was turned on, the Herald was informed, the office of the Calgary Power Co.

"It is impossible to say what amount of horsepower will be generated this month," an official of the Company stated, "because we are not certain what amount of water will be available. It will be a considerable time before the full power of obtained."

A considerable area of land has already been flooded above the dam, and the water is gradually being raised to the operating level.

When the Ghost dam is fully in operation, an artificial lake will transform the landscape in the vicinity, and next summer it is expected to prove an attraction to Calgaryans as a resort.

At present no plans have been made for a ceremony to mark the completion of the dam.

By the end of the present year the Ghost dam will be capable of yielding 35,000 horse-power from two 18,000-horse-power generators. Space has been provided for another 18,000-horse-power generator, which at some future time may be installed, thus raising the capacity to 54,000 horse-power.—Calgary Herald.

AN EGG A DAY

(By Barbara B. Brooks)

Eggs constitute one of our most valuable food products, both because of the nutritive value and because of the many ways in which they may be utilized.

Almost everyone can eat eggs because they are easily digested if cooked correctly. The white of the egg may become hard and leather-like if it is cooked at a high temperature. When "boiling" eggs, keep the temperature of the water just under the boiling point. When frying or baking eggs, turn the heat low to insure a tender product when finished.

Eggs are especially good from the nutrition standpoint because the yolk contains a large amount of iron. It requires thought and care in selecting food to get as much iron as is needed by the body daily. An egg or two a day will help to insure an adequate supply. The following recipes suggest some different ways of using eggs:

Eggs Supreme—1 cup thick cream sauce, 6 hard-cooked eggs, ½ cup cream or thick milk, ¼ cup mushrooms, 1 cup cooked ham, 1 teaspoon salt, 1½ teaspoon paprika, ½ cup grated cheese, 1 cup crisp rice cereal. To hot cream sauce, add sliced hard-boiled eggs, cream, mushrooms, ham, cheese and rice cereal. Bake in moderate oven (350 F.) for 45 minutes.

Corn Flake Omelet—4 eggs, ½ teaspoon salt, 1½ teaspoon pepper, 3 tablespoons water, 4 cups corn flakes. Beat four eggs, whites and yolks separately. To the yolks add salt and pepper and 3 tablespoons of water. Beat well. Fold whites into this and fold about four cups Corn Flakes in to the egg mixture. Cook omelet on both sides until a golden brown. Serve hot with broiled bacon and tart jelly.

Baked Eggs—Select small tomatoes of uniform size. Cut around the stem and remove the seeds. Put tomatoes in a small cake tin. Break a fresh egg into each. Add salt and pepper and bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) about 12 minutes until egg is set. Serve on hot buttered toast with tomato sauce.

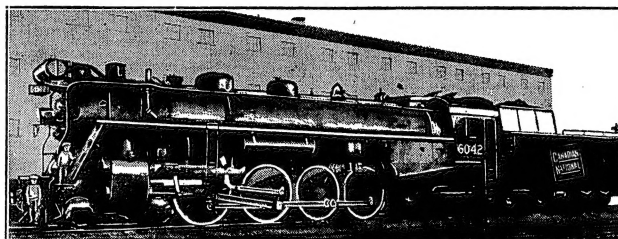

Eggs in Potato Nest—Put a two-inch layer of mashed potatoes in a baking dish. Make indentations with a tablespoon and drop an egg in each hollow. Season and bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) 15 minutes until egg is set.

Creamed Eggs with Mushrooms—1 cup finely chopped mushrooms, ½ cup finely chopped mushrooms, ½ teaspoon salt, few grains pepper, 2 cups medium white sauce. Saute mushrooms in butter. Mix mushrooms, eggs and seasonings with white sauce. Put in baking dish. Sprinkle with Corn Flake crumbs and grated cheese. Bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) 15-20 minutes or until cheese is melted.

Vicar's Wife: "We're having a meeting of the Anti-Litter Society in the school-room next Thursday. Mr. Turmuts; I hope you will come."

Turmuts: "No, I don't 'old with them new-fangled ideas. I don't want no birth-control for my pigs."

GREAT LOCOMOTIVES FOR WEST

The Canadian National Railways have placed in service on main line runs between Winnipeg and Edmonton, a number of "Mountain Type" passenger train locomotives. These are the largest locomotives ever used on the prairies and they make the entire run between Winnipeg and Edmonton without change. This is a distance of 801 miles. They are capable of hauling a train of 18 steel passenger cars at an average speed of 60 miles per hour. The locomotive with tender weighs 540,000 pounds.

It has a tractive effort of 50,000 pounds, and the boiler pressure is 250 pounds to the square inch. The diameter of the cylinders is 24 inches, with a 30 inch stroke. There are eight driving wheels with a diameter of 73 inches each. The tender carries 9,500 imperial gallons of water and 15 tons of coal.

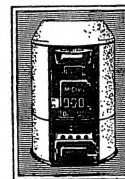

The photograph shows the first of these locomotives to be used in the west. An idea of the height of the locomotive is to be had by comparing it with the boys standing on the pilot.

Doubling of the main gas line between Viking and Edmonton will probably be extended next year, said C. J. Yorath, president of the Northwestern Utilities Limited, when seen recently. He said that the program will be governed by the demands as indicated by the load this coming winter and might involve ten miles of duplicate line.

Malinda Kivett's Wedding

(By Anna Brownell Dunaway)

"When Bright Pruitt married Malinda Kivett in the spring of '44," grandmother began reminiscently, and the girls looked up with interest, "he rose before sunup and rode on horseback to the Kivett place, twelve miles away."

"Just imagine Richard's coming for me on horseback in all the glory of his frock coat, silk hat and white gloves!" said Evelyn, with a smile. "He'll be only too glad to hide such magnificence within a taxi."

She blushed a little as she bent over her sewing. She was embroidering French knots in a dainty ribbon-run gown for her trousseau.

"Bright Pruitt had no magnificence to hide," said grandmother, "and an ox sled was his nearest approach to a taxicab."

"Poor Bright!" said Evelyn, laughing. "And how did he look, was he attired in the conventional black?"

Grandmother broke off a thread before she replied. "Land, no, child! Bright Pruitt was glad enough to have a suit of homespun made out of wool that had been sheared from the sheep, washed, picked and colored, carded, spun and woven in town. It was blue in color, and his mother was his tailor."

"And not even a posy in his button-hole, I dare say," said Evelyn.

"Well, I should say not," said Evelyn, with interest.

grandmother severely. "People would have thought he was crazy. And there were no ushers or flower girls or ring bearers, either. A wedding seventy years ago was vastly different from the pomp and glitter and ceremony of today. Those were simple times, my dear."

"But, as I was saying, Bright Pruitt dressed himself by candlelight, putting on his blue homespun and his best shirt made from linen spun from flax of his own raising."

"In those days in Indiana travel was not what it is now; the roads were hilly, rough or swampy, as the case might be, and there were innumerable gates to be opened in the stake and rider fences. So two miles was spoken of in the local vernacular, as 'right smart' of a distance."

"That is why Bright made so early a start, for the wedding was to take place in the forenoon, and he followed by a wedding dinner to which neighbors and friends for miles had been invited."

"When he arrived the guests were already assembled, the minister had come from Monrovia three miles away, and Malinda, with cheeks like red roses, was shyly mingling with the company."

"There was no wedding bell or canopy or palms. When the minister arose, Bright and Malinda walked over and took their places in front of the huge fireplace. Bright's cousin, James Pruitt, and Malinda's cousin, Polly McDaniel, stood up with them."

"Bright and Malinda made a handsome couple. I seem to see them now, as if it were only yesterday. And in the background I can see Malinda's little twin brothers, Ezekiah and Bethra, in their short-waisted butternut suits, clinging to their mother's skirts and sniffing. Malinda had been like a mother to them."

"How did the bride look?" asked Evelyn, with interest.

"As nearly as I can remember, for I was only a child of seven," said grandmother, "she was a black-eyed black-haired girl, with smooth red cheeks. Just a slip of a girl, too—only seventeen."

"Her dress was of white cross-barred muslin. The Kivetts were foreboding and Malinda had bought her dress at Monrovia. It was the first cross-barred muslin ever seen in those parts."

"Well, I'm glad she had a white wedding gown," said Evelyn. "And was it made with a round neck and short sleeves and a cute little short waist?"

"Nothing of the kind," replied grandmother. "It was made with a plain waist or body sewed on to a rather full skirt, and it had a high neck and long sleeves."

"Such styles!" commented Evelyn. "Didn't the people look curious in those days?"

"No more so than they do now," retorted grandmother. "But to go on with the wedding, I remember they had a great dinner of turkey and quince preserves and pound cake. There was boiled beef and cabbage, too, and rye bread. We have no such eating nowadays, child. Nothing in modern cookery can compare with it."

"While the dinner was in progress the sky became overcast and presently rain began to fall in driving sheets. It rained all that afternoon, and far into the night. By morning the muddy pond known as 'the lake,' between the Kivett and the Pruitt farms had overflowed, and the surrounding country was a vast, seething river. In those days there was no drainage system, and rains like that made travel impossible."

"The neighbors dispersed quickly before the roads should become impassable, but it was out of the question for Bright and Malinda to travel a distance of twelve miles with their household goods on an ox sled."

"The infare was to have been held the following day at the log cabin that Bright had built near his parents' home, but, of course, it had to be given up, and Bright and Malinda had to stay for several days at the Kivetts' before they could go over the road."

"I saw Malinda brush away a tear, for she hated to give up her house-warming."

"Well, I'll never forget the morning they left for their new home. I had slept late, and when I opened my eyes I saw Malinda tripping in and out among the big beds, patting them and making them up gently."

"She spoke to me kindly: 'Get up, little Ann; the sun is an hour high!' Then she helped me dress and smoothed my hair with deft fingers. The sap was running in the maple grove, and the orchard was just beginning to bloom. Malinda, carrying a pith helmet, started for the spring. I caught her hand and cried gaily: 'Let us run a race to the spring house!'

"She threw back her head and ran with me like a young deer. She reached the spring house first, and laughing merrily, caught me in her arms and kissed me."

"Then, all at once, her face sobered, I must do this any more, little Ann," she whispered.

"I begged her to tell me why."

"She smoothed her rumpled hair with sweet dignity. 'Because I'm married now, Ann,' she said."

"But I was not satisfied. 'And can't you play any more when you are married?' I questioned."

"Some day you will understand, little Ann," said she. 'When we are married the real business of life begins.'"

"Not long after she mounted the horse her father had given her for a dowry and rode away with Bright to their one-roomed log cabin."

"On the ox sled were loaded the two spinning wheels, the bedding, the iron kettles, delft dishes and pewter spoons. The cow, which was also a part of Malinda's dowry, followed behind."

"Bright's father had given him a horse, saddle and bridle, and his mother a corral, bedstead and a feather bed."

"Malinda turned once, at a bend in the road, waved me good-bye and smiled in her sweet, serious way. And I thought of her words to me at the spring house: 'When we are married the real business of life begins.'"

"Poor, poor Malinda!" cried Evelyn, and her eyes were soft with tears.

"Just think of starting housekeeping in one room! Why it wouldn't hold the presents that Richard and I will get! I suppose poor Malinda lived and died in that backwoods cabin, and never saw a chafing dish, or knew the difference between a rabbit and a soufflé."

"Child," said grandmother, "this is the true story of your Great-Aunt Malinda Pruitt. And she lived to grace a governor's mansion. But more than that, she was known far and wide for her gracious personality. She made her cabin home to blossom as the rose. She was a gentlewoman, a real helpmate, a wise mother, a sympathizing neighbor and a sincere friend."

For a moment Evelyn was silent, and then she said:

"What a life and what achievement! It makes me feel so useless. Why, I have never pieced a quilt, have never even seen a spinning wheel, have never—"

She stopped speaking suddenly with a catch in her voice. "O, Grandmother, thank you for telling me! I will try to make as fine a business of my married life as Great-Aunt Malinda did of hers."

at any price

in any year!

NO other six-cylinder car has ever earned, in any year, one-third the public acceptance . . . one-third the volume of sales . . . which have been bestowed upon Chevrolet Six during the nine months since its introduction.

This tremendous public acceptance is due to three outstanding facts. To the fact that Chevrolet offered, for the first time in history, a six at the price of a four . . . To the superb standard of quality in Chevrolet's design, material and workmanship. And to the new, greater performance abilities that Chevrolet Six provided.

Chevrolet Six was four years old in experiment, in research, in testing, in proving . . . before the first Chevrolet Six was placed in the hands of its owner. And that owner . . . like the million and a quarter owners who followed his example . . . SOLD HIMSELF on the Chevrolet he bought . . . on the road, behind the wheel. Why not let us place a Chevrolet Six at your disposal . . . and form your own opinion of its value.

Hospital at Vermilion Is Proving Very Satisfactory

(By Edna Kells)

Second among the Municipal hospitals built in Alberta is that of Vermilion—a three story brick building with accommodation for eighteen beds. And today, after ten years' operation, the hospital is "on its feet" with a surplus of $14,000 in the bank which would enable it to carry on under adverse circumstances if necessary.

The Municipal hospital at Vermilion succeeded a small private hospital operated by Miss Boyd, a graduate nurse who had the support of the town councilors in her efforts. These men were allowed $40.00 per year each for their services, and instead of accepting it for personal use, they turned the money over to Miss Boyd as a subsidy. They realized the need for a hospital and appreciated her efforts to provide one. But the private hospital was not equal to the demand for hospital care, and when the government passed the Alberta Municipal Hospitals Act in 1918, the people saw in its possibilities a means whereby they could build and maintain a community hospital.

The plan has worked well in Vermilion. It takes about $23,000 to finance the hospital yearly and pay off the debenture dues. The board has always been able to meet debenture payments promptly and since 1923 has not found it necessary to borrow money for current expenses. The patients' fees, $1.00 per day for rate-payers, $2.50 per day for non-rate-payers, the revenue from taxation, and the government grant make up the income. Farm lands are taxed at the rate of 3 cents per acre, and the town of Vermilion pays a flat rate of $2700, raised by taxation, as its share of the hospital upkeep. Non-rate-payers may secure the $1.00 privilege by paying $6.00 per year, and any coming to the district after January may also share this privilege by making written application to the board within three months of their arrival.

The Vermilion hospital has played an important part in educating the people to take care of their health. One woman who goes there for confinement, passes the word along that it is a good place to go and a dozen follow her. Doctors are called "earlier" and they often prefer having their cases in the hospital where they can see them more frequently. Ten miles is the average distance from town, and a doctor can take a patient to the hospital where he can be seen every day for five or six days, for the price of one visit to the home.

People are taking greater interest in prenatal care, and this is having its effect. Death rates are low, in maternity cases the rate being about 3 in 100.

So great is the demand for hospital accommodation, the present building is frequently overcrowded. In May, 1929, 64 patients were admitted and 40 discharged. There were 1001 hospital days, 18 babies were born, 7 major and 5 minor operations performed.

For some time past there has been an agitation for the extension of the hospital, but owing to crop conditions this is in abeyance for the time. A part of the Vermilion hospital territory was transferred to the Elk Point district when that district was formed, now there is an agitation afoot for the formation of another hospital district between Elk Point and Vermilion to serve settlers along the Willingdon line of the Canadian Pacific Railway. So far the building of the Elk Point hospital has not diminished the demand for accommodation at the Vermilion hospital, but naturally since the Elk Point district cuts off part of the original Vermilion district, it also cuts off part of the revenue. However, in spite of this, the hospital board has no fear for the future.

INCREASING THE VALUE OF CANADA'S MUSKRAT RESOURCES

The increased demand for muskrat pelts the consequence rise in price and the marked decrease in the natural supply are main reasons for the increasing interest and widespread demand for information as to the economic possibilities of raising this furbearer.

To meet this demand and to increase the value of Canada's muskrat resources, the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, through its Natural Resources Intelligence Service, has prepared and issued a publication entitled "The Muskrat, a Canadian Fur Resource." The purpose of the information contained in this booklet is to make possible a wider knowledge of the essentials necessary for raising muskrat under control either in their natural habitat or in pens.

This booklet on the muskrat will be sent free on request to the Natural Resources Intelligence Service, Department of the Interior, Ottawa.

CALGARY AND EDMONTON LAND CORPORATION

"Please let me have your opinion of the Calgary and Edmonton Land Corporation, known on the board as C. & E., from the standpoint of a speculative oil purchaser, or to hold for a long time."

The Calgary and Edmonton Corporation has the mineral rights, except gold and silver, on approximately 1,150,000 acres of land in Alberta, some of which is considered to be well situated as regards the possibility of striking oil. The Company leases its land to drillers on the basis of one-eighth or thereabouts. It is in receipt of some revenue at the present time from royalties and other acreage is being developed by companies which are in position to carry through their drilling programs.—Toronto Financial Post.

ALCOHOL HAS NO PLACE IN MEDICINE

"I have never known any great thing accomplished as the result of taking alcohol," Dr. William J. Mayo, the internationally known surgeon of Rochester, Minn., declared in the course of an interview with a representative of The Star. He is the elder of the two Mayo brothers. Dr. Mayo was discussing the Volstead Act and the liquor problem in the United States. "Alcohol has no place in medicine. It is a narcotic, not a stimulant."

THAT WAS HER, ALL RIGHT

It is a rule in most banks that cheques cannot be cashed for strangers, so when a calm-looking woman placed her cheque on the counter the cashier smiled respectfully.

"I am sorry, madam," he said, "you will have to be sponsored for. We do not cash cheques for strangers."

"But you know me," said the lady. "I'm afraid I don't, madam."

"Yes you do. I'm the red-headed virago who lives next door to you, whose scoundrelly little boys are always stealing your apples. When you started out for work this morning your wife called after you, 'Now, Henry, if you want any dinner you will have to leave me some money. I can't run the house on nothing, and—' Here's your money, madam," said the cashier as he hurriedly pushed it across the counter.

Here and There

In connection with "Fire Prevention Week," observed throughout Canada and the United States between October 6 and October 12, a special telegraphic message has been sent over the entire Canadian Pacific Railway system by Grant Hall, senior vice-president of the company, urging all officers and employees of the railway to co-operate by setting a good example of fire and the removal of their causes. This has been followed up by a circular letter setting forth in detail how these objects may be accomplished.

"If the English people were well advised they would not be at all loath to invest in Canada," stated Sir William Pender, president of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales, a passenger on the Empress of Scotland, after attending the international congress of accountants recently held in New York. "One of the best sources of obtaining British capital is Canadian ventures in which Canadian capital is also invested and the people connected with them of high repute and standing," he added.

Undertaken as a nation-wide movement for the promotion of British and Canadian music and to give Canadians an opportunity of hearing the music which is their legitimate heritage, the unique British and Canadian concert series sponsored by the music department of the Canadian Pacific Railway will, it is announced, be under the distinguished patronage of His Excellency, Viscount Willingdon, Governor-General of Canada. Six Canadian centres—Victoria, Vancouver, Calgary, Regina, Winnipeg and Toronto—have been selected for the first season's recitals and 34 artists in all will provide the programmes which are to continue at intervals during the fall and winter.

Definite steps to control the traffic in deer and moose hides which has reached large proportions, have been taken by Chief Game Warden H. H. Ritchie, of the New Brunswick Department of Lands and Mines. Last year 7,000 deer hides and about 700 moose hides were exported from New Brunswick largely to glove manufacturers in Quebec and Ontario and the states of Maine and New Hampshire. Tin seal tags must now be affixed to dead animals before transportation becomes legal.

Reports are appearing in the British press that the Prince of Wales stands to make a fortune out of oil production in his Elkh River ranch. Some reports have estimated the possible profit as high as $5,000,000. This is regarded in the west as sheer guess work, although the Turner Valley which practically adjoins the Prince's ranch has developed oil on a large scale. Meanwhile there are no wells being drilled on the ranch though drilling is in progress about a mile away.

The prairies are usually associated with wheat and cattle, but they are also important sources of commercial fish. The third largest lake on the continent is in Manitoba and great bodies of fresh water in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta teem with fish of high quality. In one day recently 40 carloads of whitefish and pickerel were shipped from these provinces to Minneapolis, Chicago and New York.

Farmer: "Thought you said you had plowed the ten-acre field."

Plowman: "No; I only said I was thinking about plowing it."

Farmer: "Oh, I see; you've merely turned it over in your mind."

Canada shipped wheat flour directly to 33 countries during the last crop year, ending July 31st, and wheat to 34 countries. A return of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics covering this period shows exports of wheat to all destinations at 354,424,699 bushels and of wheat flour at 11,808,775 barrels. The greatest volume of flour exported from Canada in the last crop year went to China, with the United Kingdom second and Germany third. Shipment to China amounted to 3,040,667 barrels; those to the United Kingdom 2,637,567 barrels and to Germany, 1,097,289 barrels.

The fabulous treasury of jewels of the Shah of Persia has been estimated at $170,000,000 by a committee of French and Dutch jewel experts headed by Risa Khan, which has completed the first valuation ever made of an Eastern potentate's gems. This figure does not include the famous Dairrainur diamond, which is so huge that the experts were forced to admit that they were unable to set its value.

"A young idler called on a millionaire and told him nonchalantly that he wanted to marry his daughter. 'The millionaire got ready to read this young fellow a lecture on idleness and began: 'Young man, do you know how I made my money?' 'Yes, Oh yes,' said the young man, 'but I can't allow that to stand in the way of Lotties happiness.'"

"Boss, I've been taking a correspondence course, on how to get more money." "You won't get it out of me. I'm taking a correspondence course on how to keep down expenses."

Poverty is no disgrace, says a local philosopher, but that's about all that can be said in its favor.

World Cruising Damsels Wear Great Variety of Costumes

ROUND-THE-WORLD DAMSEL GIRLS

People to whom a world cruise or any other long winter voyage is an experience yet to be enjoyed may wonder what those more fortunate folk do to pass the time while they are sailing the Seven Seas. If any interest the stay-at-homes to know that the time spent on these pleasure jaunts rarely hangs heavy, for all sorts of diversions are planned for the entertainment of the globe-trotters. The bridge fiend has his bridge parties, the amateur photographer his camera expeditions and the dancer his dancing, but one of the most fascinating of all, to the fair sex, at least, is that of purchasing and trying on costumes typical of the various far-off lands visited. Pictured above for instance, is a bevy of beauties photographed aboard the world-cruising Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Australia" en route from China to Japan during her 1928-29 annual round the world tour. They are blossoming out in dazzling pajama-suits which they purchased in the Orient. This collection of pseudo-Chinese maidens must have caused many a masculine heart to miss a beat or two! The other group of ladies are wearing sari-darlin coats acquired during an earlier trip around the world.

At practically every port of call, it is possible for passengers who are so inclined to purchase some little memento, be it a shawl, a perfume bottle, or a ring, a native doll, a walking stick or other souvenir of their travels. During a world cruise of the "Empress of Australia," several years ago a cruise member from Denver, Col., purchased a toy elephant for each member of the Denver Kiwanis Club of which he was a member and posed with his collection of pachyderms for the vessel's corps of amateur photographers. Spanish shawls, parasols and many other articles complete the list of possibilities for globe-trotters with a penchant for collecting.

The "Empress of Australia" will sail again on a globe-circling voyage, leaving New York December 2, 1929, for a cruise of 127

Representatives of the English Folk Dance Society, thirteen in number, are sailing for Canada on S.S. Montrose, October 24, to take part in the English Music Festival arranged by the Canadian Pacific Railway at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, November 13-18. The party is under the direction of Douglas Kennedy, leader of the English Folk Dance Society. The practice of English Folk Dances has spread to hundreds of thousands in the British Isles, and it is believed that the dancers' visit here will result in the popularization of these dances in Canada.

Approved plans calling for completion of construction within two years will enable the Canadian Pacific Railway to extend the Cut-knife line through the Battlefords and eventually to the fertile farmlands of the vast Meadow Lake area, linking that part of Saskatchewan to the plains region lying towards Calgary and thence to a coast outlet at Vancouver. This construction will mean the turning of a new page in the history of one of the most promising agricultural sections of Western Canada.

"The mail must go through," slogan of the air mail service was well illustrated recently when S.S. Duchess of Bedford docked at Quebec with a heavy mail consignment which had weathered and prevented taking off at Father Point as is the usual practice. Mails were rushed four miles to the Quebec airport and reached Montreal one hour later. They were delivered by another special plane to the Toronto airport five hours after the Duchess had docked.

Two hundred and forty-eight milk and four foxes, valued in all at $15,000, were carried recently by Canadian Pacific Express from Ontario to Alberta. The foxes were shipped by S.S. Montrose to France. They were all in good shape and represent one of the largest shipments of foxes in the world. Demand comes from Great Britain, France, Germany, Holland and Switzerland.

For the second time in three years, the investment bankers' association of America held their annual convention at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, this October. Over a thousand delegates attended from all parts of the United States and Canada and the convention was addressed by E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Beaten out of world series glories, three members of the Yankees Baseball Team, R. Shawkey, coach; Roy Sherid, pitcher; and G. Bengough, catcher, saved their disappointment with a ten-day sojourn in the Laurentians, hunting section north of Montreal. Hunters coming out of this region had before, reported fine sport, and one of them brought a 52-inch moose head out of the wilds as a trophy.

Three years ago there were only four grain elevators in Alberta belonging to the Alberta Wheat Pool. Now there are 437, representing an investment of more than $6,000,000. The introduction of combines and auto trucks has speeded up harvesting on the Canadian prairies to a remarkable degree, says an official bulletin.

PONOKA GIRLS WIN BASKETBALL GAME

Red Deer, Oct. 21.—A snappy team of basketball players from Ponoka High school paid the local quintet a visit here on Friday night, and trounced the home town girls 12-8 in the Assembly hall before a large turnout of fans.

Better combination and better shooting gave the outsiders their game, throughout the game it being apparent that the Red Deer girls were not in their class.

NEW SKATING, HOCKEY ARENA AT OLDS, ALTA.

Olds is to have a new $16,000 hockey and skating arena for the 1929-30 season.

The bylaw submitted to the voters of Olds on Saturday to borrow $10,000 for the erection of a covered rink and building, which could be utilized for exhibition and recreation purposes, carried by a large majority, the final vote being 138 to 18.

The estimated cost of the building is $16,000. The Olds Athletic Club, Limited, agreed to finance the balance of the money.

HOCKEY BOYS OFF TO STATES FOR SEASON

August Marker and Emil Hansen are two Camrose boys who will be members of the Tulsa Oilers professional hockey team at Tulsa, Okla., for their second season. Marker has already gone to report and Hansen will leave on Sunday night. It is probable that Marker will play in his position as right wing man, while Hansen expects to be placed on left defence.

Oscar Hansen has come to Minneapolis where he has an offer to join a team at that point or in St. Paul. Both Emil and Oscar are sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen. — Camrose Canadian.

A GREAT ALBERTA INDUSTRY

Thousands of people attended nightly the "Made in Alberta" Exhibition which was held in the Riverview Pavilion, Edmonton, on the week of October 7th, for six days.

Amongst the most attractive booths which presented in graphic form, the story of their special industry, was a unique one sponsored by the Red Cross Society. No matter what time of day one passed, this stall was the centre of attraction, and the visitors who came to look remained to listen.

The Society put forth some strutting claims to attention. One large poster proclaimed the fact that in the year 1928 30,000 boys and girls were made healthier and happier under the Junior Red Cross in the schoolrooms of Alberta.

Not only in the making but in the repairing business is found that forward humanitarian Society, for as we read, we see that 179 children and 350 adults were repaired in the hospitals operated by the Red Cross.

FALL PLOUGHING

(Experimental Farms Note)
The result of several years' experiments conducted at the Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe, indicates that in years with the usual amount of precipitation, fall ploughing will give as high yields of wheat or oats per acre than spring ploughing. In years with more than the average rainfall, fall ploughing gives very heavy crops, while spring ploughing usually gives better returns than fall ploughing in dry seasons, following a very dry autumn.

When the advantages of having the well cultivated during the remainder land ready for the drill in the spring are taken into consideration along with the possibility of as high or higher yields per acre, it would seem that farmers living in districts similar to Central Alberta would be well advised to do as much fall ploughing as possible.

Sod has been broken at different times during the season. The general practice is to break the sod early in June and work as a fallow throughout the balance of the season. Experimental data indicate that when everything is considered, the most economical returns are produced when sod is ploughed immediately after the hay crop is harvested and the land kept such land under cultivation.

Provision of Work Is Seen As a Poor Cure for Unemployment

Sitting that while nothing was new and there was no such thing as freedom, William Irvine, M.P. for Wetaskiwin, based his talk at the Open Forum, Edmonton, Sunday evening on the subject "The New Freedom" or, as he defined it, the present age of jazz and modernity. The radical change of conditions in the new age has brought about accompanying problems and their eventual solution formed the gist of the address.

The rather startling statement that unemployment was an essential factor of modern civilization was qualified by the speaker in explaining that the industrial revolution which has marked the new age would be a farce without unemployment.

"Does anyone suppose that Thomas will be able to find work for all the unemployed of Great Britain," he asked and added "God forbid."

In the opinion of the speaker, employment was not the cure for unemployment. The continuity and intensity of the problems which have followed industrial progress must be studied.

"We must make the machine subservient to human values instead of being slaves of the machine," he said.

CENTRAL, NORTHERN ALBERTA BOOSTS EXPORTS 10 PER CENT; $700,000 SHIPMENTS TO U.S.

Exports from central and northern Alberta to the United States for the quarter ending September 30th amounted to little short of $700,000, according to Odlin G. Loren, American vice consul with headquarters here. This represents an increase of ten per cent on the value of shipments during the previous quarter.

The report shows that exports for the three months from July 1 to September 30, amounted to $699,530. Of this sum, there was $228,625, representing the valuation of fresh fish shipments from northern Alberta to the United States market. The fish trade was fully 75 per cent more than that of the similar quarter of 1928, showing an increased demand in the big distributing centres of Chicago, New York and elsewhere.

Exports of meats and cattle were valued at $219,534, compared with $192,576 in the previous quarter. There was a heavy drop, however, in shipments of fur, which were valued at $66,263. It is believed this decrease was largely due to the fact that large shipments were made from the north by means of aeroplanes early in the year.

Other exports were: Lumber, $78,209; cattle hides, $50,167; wool, $14,958; horse hair, $10,651. There were $9,818 hogs shipped south, a slight decrease on the previous three months.

MANY ALBERTA HOSPITALS ON APPROVED LIST

In the list of "approved" hospitals of the American College of Surgeons are the two Calgary ones. Approximately 2,000 hospitals in Canada and the United States measure up to the college's requirements, among them being the principal ones in Alberta.

The requirements for hospitals are: A modern physical plant, free from hazards, with a competent governing body. An efficient chief executive officer or superintendent with a competent personnel. An organized medical staff of qualified physicians and surgeons who hold regular meetings to review and evaluate the professional work of the hospital. A thorough system for recording conditions, treatment and progress of each patient. Acceptable diagnostic and therapeutic facilities. Definite evidence that the staff members are opposed to fee-splitting or payment of commissions by surgeons for patients referred to them.

The approved hospitals in Alberta are: Banff—Brett Sanitarium, 64 beds, fully approved. Calgary—Calgary General Hospital, 214 beds, fully approved; Holy Cross Hospital, 200 beds, fully approved. Camrose—St. Mary's Hospital, 50 beds, fully approved.

Edmonton—Edmonton General Hospital, 200 beds, fully approved; Misericordia Hospital, 175 beds, fully approved; Royal Alexandra Hospital, 350 beds, fully approved; University of Alberta Hospital, 200 beds, fully approved.

Lethbridge—Lethbridge Public Hospital, 65 beds, fully approved. Lethbridge—Galt Hospital, 81 beds, fully approved. Medicine Hat—Medicine Hat General.

Kidney and Bladder Trouble

Mr. J. Constock, Fincher Creek, Alta., writes:—"I had been troubled with my kidneys and bladder for some time, and had to get up four or five times during the night."

"I tried several kinds of kidney and liver pills, but none of them seemed to do me any good."

"I thought I would try Doan's Kidney Pills and after taking one box I have been able to sleep all night long, and I now feel that they are the only thing to take for the kidneys and bladder, as I have not been troubled since taking this one box."

PRIVY COUNCIL RULES WOMEN ARE ELIGIBLE FOR SENATE

London, Oct. 18.—Women are eligible to be summoned and become members of the Senate of Canada. Their lordships of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council rendered this opinion today on the appeal by five representative women of Alberta against an adverse decision of the Canadian Supreme Court.

Contrary to the supreme court, the privy council today came to the conclusion "that the word persons includes members of both the male and female sex."

The appeal hinged upon the meaning to be placed on the word "persons," as contained in the clause of the British North America Act. The Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, Lord Sankey, delivered the judgment, taking the unusual course of reading it in full before the court.

Here and There

(404) Differences in the price of wheat at Chicago and Winnipeg and regarding the wheat movement in western Canada is due to the view of Canadian wheat growers that its good quality justifies holding it for higher prices while British and continental buyers believe they can obtain their present requirements from the Argentine and the United States. It is the explanation of this condition that is in a statement recently issued over the signatures of E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway and Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railway. Until the present impasse between buyer and seller is adjusted there will be a practical stoppage in the movement of grain with consequent serious effects on gross net earnings of both the rail and water carriers.

Travelling 300 miles north of Edmonton, the waterways branch of the Northern Alberta Railway to Waterways and Fort McMurray, E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, accompanied by a number of directors of the railway, inspected the salt wells and tar and deposits of the region. Experts of the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways are at present examining the deposits which Mr. Beatty said he was satisfied would be a great asset to Alberta.

Delegates from the Canadian Chambers of Commerce who have been travelling extensively in the west of Canada, mainly over Canadian Pacific lines, have through their national committee reiterated their stand in favor of a continuance of assisted immigration of selected British settlers of a desirable type to Canada.

Charles Reid, of the Banff Springs Golf Club, won the Prince of Wales golf trophy, famous and coveted prize of golfdom, from a field of 427 competitors recently. His score was 144 net, his handicap being 17. This is the first time in the history of the competition that the cup has gone to a Banff player, Calgary golfers having taken it to that city on each of the four former competitions.

Canada's reindeer industry takes a big forward step this year with the trek of 3,000 northern animals from Alaska into the Dominion. In November this herd, secured by Canada from the United States herds in Alaska, will begin a trek which will take 18 months and will land the animals in 1931 on the Arctic coast east of the Mackenzie river.

Australians are "thoroughly loyal" so far as Empire Trade is concerned, and buy, for example, 98 per cent of their automobiles from Canadian manufacturers, Sir James Murdoch, member of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, told the Vancouver Canadian Club recently. Sir James had just returned from a cross-Canada tour by Canadian Pacific lines and was on his way back to Australia.

Settlers in the Peace River country have a definite uniformity of outlook regarding the progress of the country as a whole, said Col. J. S. Dennis, Chief Commissioner of Colonization and Immigration of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who has been inspecting the northern part of Alberta over the Northern Alberta Railway. He was astonished at the readiness of the Boards of Trade and individual business men to take a large view even where it might work temporary hardship locally.

HEAD OFFICE MONTREAL

For some years it has been the practice merely to announce the general result.

The judgment was of exceptional interest, not only for the constitutional point involved, but because it also raised the question of the general status of women.

The appellants were Hon. Irene Paribby, of Aliz, Alberta, one of the first women in the Empire to become a cabinet minister; Mrs. Louise McKinney, of Claresholm, Alberta, first woman elected to the Alberta Legislature; Mrs. Nellie McClung, of Calgary, writer and lecturer, who represented Edmonton in the legislature; Mrs. O. C. Edwards, of Macleod, Alberta, veteran expert, who has been convenor on laws for the National Council of Women, and Magistrate Emily Murphy, of Edmonton, one of the first women in Canada to be appointed magistrates.

Their appeal to the privy council for a fresh interpretation of the vital clause in the B.N.A. Act, following the ruling of the supreme court, had not been opposed by the Dominion government.

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—On learning of the decision of the judicial committee of the privy council that women were eligible to become members of the Senate of Canada, Prime Minister Mackenzie King said that he was very pleased. He added that it had been the intention of the government, had the decision been against the admission of women as members of the upper chamber, to introduce an amendment to the British North America Act. The decision of the judicial committee, however, makes this unnecessary.

SAXON OILS TO BE DRILLED BY PREMIER

The Premier Drilling Company Limited, which has the contract to drill two wells in the Pigeon Lake field, has just completed arrangements and signed a contract to drill on the holdings of the Saxon Oils Limited.

Saxon Oils have 1745 acres comprising 28 selected holdings in eight different fields, including five leases in the Turner Valley. This means one of the largest drilling contracts that has recently been closed.

The Premier are now making arrangements to put down the first well and from then on their drilling operations will be very extensive on the Saxon ground.

It is probable that the first well will be drilled in the Red Coulee field. This ground has been very favorably reported on by Dr. T. B. Williams and is on the same structure where the Vanaia well recently came in at the shallow depth of 2477 feet.

Chew and Grow Thin

You know that certain foods furnish body energy without adding uncomfortable fat.

Sugar is one of these foods, supplying needed energy in concentrated form.

WRIGLEY'S chewing sweets give you sugar and flavor. These ingredients dissolve in your mouth.

What pleasanter way of taking sugar?

Finish the meal with WRIGLEY'S and stay thin.

How to Play BRIDGE

Series 1928-29 by Wynne Ferguson

ARTICLE No. 35

Every once in a while somebody gets an idea that he has a problem that no one can solve and sends it in, hoping against hope that it will "stick" the editor. Here is the latest and it is a good one, but we are glad to say that the solution was not impossible:

No score, first game. 2 dealt, bid one spade and all passed. If A opened the king of clubs, it is possible for Z to make a grand slam against any defense. Try this out before you read the solution.

Solution: The Grand Slam can be made as follows: Z should discard the king of diamonds from Y's hand on the lead of the king of clubs, winning the trick in his own hand with the ace of clubs. He should now lead the five of clubs and trump in Y's hand with the queen of spades. Y should now lead the king of diamonds and follow with the Rubber game, no score. Z's original bid was three spades, which was doubled by A (a business double). All passed and A opened the king of hearts. How should Z plan the play of the hand? Solution: This hand is an excellent example of the value of playing safe. If A happens to have five trumps to the king, and Z leads the ace and queen of spades, A will win the second spade trick and lead another heart. Z will be forced to trump this and must then lose his contract by one trick. On the other hand, if Z plays safe, he should lead one round of trumps and then lead

On Tuesday evening, October 15th, many friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ingle to farewell Mr. and Mrs. F. Higginson on the eve of their departure for the coast. A fine auto rug and purse were presented to them, and a pleasant evening spent together.

Under the auspices of the choir of the United Church, Millet, Miss Beryl Kingsbury, Canadian soprano, of Edmonton, will give a concert in Pinyon's hall, Millet, on Tuesday evening, October 29. She will be assisted by Mr. Imrie Borden, tenor, late of New York, and members of the choir—Mrs. P. Aikens, readers Mr. Harold Jordan, saxophone, and Mr. J. R. K. Graham will contribute numbers on the program. Miss Kingsbury comes highly recommended as a soprano of unusual quality and power and pleasing personality. The evening's program promises to be a musical treat. The proceeds from the concert are to be used for the purchase of choir music.

THINK IT OVER !

I said to the Owl:
"Pray, why do you cowl?"
"You've nothing to make you look blue.
Come, let us be merry;
Don't be so contrary."
But the owl only said "Whoo-hoo."

Weddings

JOHNSTON—CONQUERGOOD

At the home of Mrs. L. M. Smale, Leduc, a pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, October 16th, when Lyall Johnston of Pipestone district, was married to Miss Margaret Conquergood of Leduc. Near relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present. The bride was lovely in a peach tulle gown, and had as bridesmaid Miss Gertrude Johnston, sister of the groom, wearing a gown of green crepe de chene. She was given away by her brother, Harold Conquergood of New Island. The groom was supported by John M. Trebley of Pipestone. His gift to the bride was a beautiful wrist watch. The officiating minister was Rev. L. R. Macdonald.

The rooms were decorated in pink and white with streamers and bells. The table was adorned with roses and had as a central attraction the beautiful bride's cake.

At the close of the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served. Beautiful presents testified to the popularity of the bride among her relatives and friends.

The bride and groom, after a honeymoon in Edmonton and vicinity, will be at home at their residence on the farm near Patience.

WEIR—CARR

A pretty wedding was solemnized in the Roman Catholic Church, Millet, on the 16th inst., by Rev. Father McQuade, P.P., when Amy Singleton Carr, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Carr, formerly of Metchen, Co. Derry, Ireland, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Erol Weir, son of Mr. Mary Weir of Millet. The bride, who wore a pretty dress of royal blue with white silk trimming, was attended by Miss Maggie Moonen. Mr. John Carr supported the groom.

The wedding was attended by a large number of friends who gave the bride a number of useful presents.

The groom's gifts were: gold cuff links to the best man; gold brooch to the bridesmaid; and a ring set with rubies and pearls to the bride. The bride's gifts to the groom were ties and silk handkerchiefs. The groom's mother and aunt presented cheques to the young couple.

The happy couple left Millet by the two o'clock train for Golden, B.C., accompanied by the bridegroom's mother and uncle.

Obituary

FRED PHEASEY

The funeral service of Fred Pheasey, who passed away on Sunday, October 13th, was held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Knox United church. Rev. Mr. McIntosh officiated and interment took place in the Edmonton cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. S. Ballcroft, C. Cooper, G. Leary, R. Topping, J. Prescott and C. Tomlinson. Many beautiful floral tributes were received.

The late Mrs. Pheasey was a brother of Mrs. P. Cottrell of Millet.

MEMBERS OF I.O.O.F. LODGE GIVEN FAREWELL PARTY

At the regular meeting of Millet Lodge I.O.O.F. on Wednesday evening of last week, twenty members of Ponoka Lodge paid a visit to the local brothers and took charge of the Degree work.

At the banquet which followed, a farewell was extended to two of the local brothers, J. O. Anderson and F. J. Higginson, who left on Saturday for their families, for Edmonton and Victoria, respectively. Mr. Anderson was presented with a pair of gold cuff links, and Mr. Higginson with a gold ring, both gifts being engraved with the three links. The recipients were taken by surprise, but in neat speeches they thanked the brothers for their kind thoughts of them and for the tokens of remembrance.

Mr. A. P. Mitchell was chairman for the occasion and filled the position in his usual good style.

A number of short speeches followed, and the evening was brought to a close at midnight by singing the National Anthem. A hour in social chat followed before the visitors took the train for home.

Heard among the fellows: "I think Mrs. Smart will make an ideal wife. Every time I go to her house I find her darning her father's socks." "That caught me, too—until I noticed it was always the same sock."

HILLSIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Lapine of Duhamel, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Webb.

Rev. Miller will take the services in the schoolhouse on Sunday afternoon. Wallace Marr left this week for Olds, where he will attend the School of Agriculture.

Mr. W. H. Webb spent a few days in Edmonton last week.

Wm. Irvine, M.P., was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Young for a few days last week.

Kenneth Marr, who has spent the last year in B.C., is back in the district visiting friends.

A number of the U.F.W.A. members were the guests of the Millet Local on Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Howard, when they entertained in honor of Mrs. Higginson and Mrs. Anderson who were leaving for Dunsmuir, B.C., and Edmonton, to reside. The best wishes of the Hillside members follow the two ladies to their new homes.

Will all those who wish to donate to the White Elephant and Gift Sale in Millet next Saturday, kindly hand in their donations to the members of the Hillside Board, or see that they are in Millet in good time Saturday.

HILLSIDE U.F.A. NEWS

The October meeting of the U.F.A. Local was held at the home of H. G. Young on Friday evening, October 11. The attendance was large, the house being crowded to its utmost capacity.

After the roll call and the adoption of the minutes of previous meeting, the committee on winter program was appointed to report to next meeting. A letter from Mr. Turner re illustrated lecture on history of co-operation was read and the Secretary was instructed to write and enquire re date available.

The question of the Livestock Pool was discussed, and a committee appointed to investigate and get more information for next meeting.

An interesting discussion was held on the new Farm Loan Act, and considerable information was obtained.

A very pleasing feature of the meeting was the presence of a considerable number of visitors from the Coal Lake and Verdun Locals. The visitors were invited to take part in the discussion, and after most of the business had been disposed of, were each given an opportunity to say a few words, making a real contribution to the success of the meeting.

The Verdun delegation invited the Hillside Local to debate with them on the question of the compulsory Wheat Pool. Hillside, of course, needs no urging to undertake a debate, so the resolution was drawn up, and acting upon an invitation from the representatives of Coal Lake who were present, it was decided to hold the debate at Coal Lake hall on Wednesday, November 6th.

Wm. Irvine, M.P., who was present, gave a very interesting but brief address.

Mrs. Ross, the U.F.W.A. director, and Mr. Northey, the Pool elevator agent at Millet, were also welcome visitors.

The secretary called the attention of members generally to the fact that money is now being collected for a presentation to H. W. Wood, which will take place at the forthcoming annual convention next January. Contributions are limited to 25c per member, and will be accepted from members only. The sum of $250 was contributed by the local members present, and more will be raised later.

After the usual lunch and a most enjoyable social time, the meeting dispersed regretfully at a late hour, after arranging to hold the next meeting at the home of T. H. Hovos on Nov. 8th, when another real time is expected.

PRESENTATIONS MADE TO PROMINENT MILLET LADIES

On Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' Aid of the United Church convened to surprise Mrs. J. O. Anderson and Mrs. P. Higginson, two faithful members who were leaving town at the weekend, at the home of Mrs. Anderson. A pleasing program under the direction of Mrs. Kent was carried out. In this Mrs. V. C. Rowley, with Mrs. Dowler at the piano, rendered a solo and all joined in chorus and a sing song. Mrs. Rowley, Mrs. S. C. Moen and Mrs. Higginson gave humorous readings and Miss Theina Anderson a piano solo. After playing a game, Mrs. West, President of the Ladies' Aid, addressed the two ladies honored by the gathering, referring to their valuable services in whatever work called, and extending best wishes to them for the future. Mrs. Facey, vice-president of the Ladies' Aid then made presentations to each of a pointed velvet cushion top. Following a delicious afternoon tea, all joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Members of the U.F.W.A. from the district surrounding Millet, gathered at the home of Mrs. Howard on Tuesday afternoon, October 15th, to do honor to two of their number leaving shortly for residence in other localities—Mrs. P. Higginson, a member of the Millet Local from the time of its organization, who, with the members of her family was leaving on a motor trip to the coast cities, and Mrs. J. O. Anderson, leaving with her family for residence in Edmonton.

Mrs. Higginson's new autograph album collected sentiments from one and all, many of the entries causing much laughter.

Mrs. Carney, president of the Millet Local, spoke of the purpose of this special meeting of the U.F.W.A., and called on Mr. William Irvine, M.P., to make the presentation of a lovely autograph to Mrs. Higginson and a beautiful fruit bowl to Mrs. Anderson. Mr. Irvine paid high tribute to the ladies of the community in that they were so supplementing those of their number who were going away, and to Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Higginson, who they had been so associated while in residence at Millet.

About thirty ladies were present, and, following the presentation and

HOSPITAL BAZAAR

Preparations are under way to make the Hospital Bazaar on November 14 the biggest and best yet.

There will be fancy work, sewing and novelties, the usual candy and fish pond and the dollatessen booth which was such an attraction last year. House-House will be in progress all the time and the ladies will serve afternoon tea from three to six and conduct a refreshment booth in the evening. Last but not least, Frank Harvey and his boys have been engaged to play peppy music for the jive dance from nine o'clock, so come early and be prepared to stay until the last strains of "Home, Sweet Home" are played. By the way, have you bought your ticket on the beautiful cedar chest? The winning ticket will be drawn the night of the bazaar.

IN MEMORIAM

McRAE.—In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Agnes McRae, who died on the 24th of October, 1928.

The loneliness of life returns, And grief renews itself today Within our hearts. And Nature mourns As mourn we in the Autumn grey.

For mother's presence—years adored, Her fellowship so frank and free: Her loving kindness which she poured Upon us is no more to be.

She dwells apart, and lonely here We dwell who dwell with her so long; And, lo, we miss her, mother dear, We miss her presence sweet and strong.

And in our hearts we mourn anew, But not as hopeless children do: We sorrow not, nor weep in vain For we are sure to meet again.

Inserted by her son and daughter, B. C. McRae and Jennie May Mark.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. N. A. Johnson wishes through the columns of The Times, to sincerely thank her many friends for the sympathy and assistance extended during her recent bereavement, and also for the beautiful floral contributions.

CARD OF THANKS

The undersigned wish to sincerely thank their neighbors and friends for the kindness and help given during their recent and bereavement. They are especially grateful for the floral tributes.

Magnesia Best for Your Indigestion

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discovered that the use of harmless drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestants, and instead, following the advice so often given in proper columns, take a teaspoonful or four tablets of Blaudat Magnesia in a little water after meals with the result that their stomachs no longer trouble them, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. Those who use Blaudat Magnesia never dread the approach of meal time because they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective, which can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralize the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation, and make digestion easy. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get Blaudat Magnesia, especially prepared for stomach use. C-12

"A GOLDEN MILESTONE"

The announcement that the British and Foreign Bible Society has just issued its popular report for the current year will be welcomed by all those who have had the opportunity of reading from year to year, in story form, the report of the work of the Society. There is perhaps no other record of the kind in the world which presents in such a fascinating way a survey of Christian missionary enterprise, or gives with greater insight the religious condition of the work in such brief and attractive form.

This year the report is entitled "Another Milestone," and this is a very appropriate title as 1929 marks its 125th anniversary—and around the idea of the "Golden Milestone" erected in the Forum at Rome centuries ago, from which all distances in the Roman Empire were measured, the Editor, Rev. E. W. Smith, centres the story of the Society's activities in translation, in circulation, and in the development and progress of the past 25 years.
